Meet Gertrude!

The Curious Little Goat of Triple G Farms

Hello, friends!
My name is Gertrude, and I'm a young Nubian goat. I live at Triple G Farms in beautiful Maine!

I have long, floppy ears with pretty speckles, and I wear a purple collar with a special tag that has my name on it.

I'm very curious and love to explore! I like to ask questions, discover new things, and sometimes get into a little mischief. My best friends are MayBelle and Amos, and we love having adventures together!

My Favorite Things:

- Exploring around the farm
- Asking lots of questions
- Finding something yummy to nibble
- Playing with MayBelle and Amos

A Little Lesson from Gertrude:

"It's good to be curious! Asking questions helps us learn and discover the amazing world God has made!"
