A Special Winter Story

In this story, the farm friends learn about the very first Christmas, a special time when a new baby was born and many people came to visit. They also learn about kindness, helping others, and spending time with family and friends.

Let's Talk About the Story

1. Where did the baby sleep?
2. Who came to visit the baby?
3. What animals do you remember in the story?
4. What are some kind things the farm friends did?
5. What was your favorite part of the story?

Think About It!

1. Why do you think some people traveled a long way to visit the new baby?

2. What do you think the star meant?

3. Which character do you like best and why?

4. What are some ways the farm friends showed kindness in the story?

5. How can you be kind to others during the holiday season?
