Nubian Goats

Meet Gertrude!

Gertrude is a Nubian goat! She is curious, playful, and full of personality. Gertrude loves exploring, spending time with her farm friends, and discovering new things at Triple G Farms. Nubian goats are known for their long, floppy ears and their friendly, social nature.

A Curious, Playful, and Faithful Farm Friend

About the Breed

Nubian goats originated in Africa, where they were prized for their milk and their hardy nature. They were brought to other parts of the world because of their excellent milk production and friendly personalities. Nubian goats are one of the oldest known goat breeds and are loved by farmers for their intelligence, curiosity, and social nature.

5 Fun Facts About Nubian Goats

1. They have long, floppy ears that help them stay cool in warm weather.
2. They are very social and love to be with other goats and friends.
3. They are curious and intelligent.
4. They are known for their rich, creamy milk.
5. They come in many colors and patterns!

What Makes Gertrude Special?

Gertrude has a big personality and a curious heart. She loves to explore, make new friends, and be part of every farm adventure. Her long, floppy ears, beautiful brown-and-white coat, and loving nature show what a wonderful breed Nubian goats are. Gertrude helps us remember to be curious, kind, and to discover the beauty in God's amazing world!

How to Care for a Nubian Goat

- Food & Water: Provide fresh water every day and a healthy diet of hay, goat feed, and fresh forage.
- Shelter: A clean, safe barn or shelter keeps them protected from weather.
- Grooming: Their ears and coat should be kept clean. Check their ears regularly.
- Companionship: Goats are social and do best with other goats or farm friends.

Did You Know?

Nubian goats are one of the top dairy goat breeds! They can produce a lot of milk, and their milk is known for being rich, creamy, and great for making cheese, yogurt, and soap.

Let's Learn Together!

- What is your favorite thing about goats?
- How can we be kind and respectful around animals?
- Draw a picture of Gertrude or a goat doing something fun on the farm!

Nubian goats are a gift from God.