The Fall Harvest Adventure

Celebrating God's Good Gifts at Triple G Farms

Today's Big Lesson

Harvest is a time to gather God's good gifts. We can be thankful for the food, animals, family, and friends He provides.

Let's Talk About the Story

1. What does harvest mean?
2. What are some of the things the family gathered on the farm?
3. How did MayBelle, Amos, and Gertrude help during harvest?
4. What is your favorite part of fall on the farm? Why?

Did You Know?

- Farmers harvest many foods in the fall, like pumpkins, apples, corn, and vegetables.
- Harvest means to gather the crops when they are ready.
- Animals and people all have a special job on the farm.
- God's creation gives us so many good gifts to enjoy and share with others.

God's Word for Little Farmers

"Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good. His love endures forever."

Psalm 107:1 (NLT)

Our Little Lesson:

We can be thankful for God's good gifts and use what we have to help others.

Fun Activities to Help Us Make a Difference

Faith & Family Edition

Activity 1: Harvest Fun

Ages 3–5

Draw and color a picture of your favorite fall harvest item from the farm. It could be a pumpkin, an apple, corn, or anything you like!

Activity 2: From Seed to Harvest

Ages 6–8

A pumpkin grows through different stages before it is ready to harvest. Look at the pictures below and put the numbers 1–5 in the correct order from seed to harvest.

Kindness Challenge

This week, do one or more of these kind things:

- ☐ Help with a harvest chore at home or on the farm.
- ☐ Share fresh food with a neighbor or someone in need.
- ☐ Learn about where your food comes from.
- ☐ Be thankful for the people who grow our food.
- ☐ Try not to waste food. Take only what you need.

Learn More About Harvest

- Many fruits and vegetables are ready to harvest in the fall, like pumpkins, apples, corn, and carrots.
- Farmers work hard to grow and gather food for people and animals.
- Harvest time helps us prepare for winter.
- We can show gratitude by enjoying good food, sharing with others, and being kind to the land and animals.
