
It was a beautiful morning at Triple G Farms. Today was grooming day!
Audrina gathered the brushes, combs, and other grooming tools. MayBelle, Amos, and Gertrude were excited.
“Keeping our animal friends clean and comfortable is an important part of caring for them,” Audrina said. “Grooming helps them stay healthy and feel good, and it also gives us special time together.”

Audrina started with MayBelle. She gently brushed MayBelle’s thick, fluffy coat. MayBelle closed her eyes and leaned in. She loved it!
Grandpa used a curry brush on Amos. His soft golden coat became shiny and smooth. Amos wagged his tail the whole time.
Next, Audrina brushed Gertrude’s smooth coat. Gertrude stood still and enjoyed the gentle strokes. Her long, floppy ears wiggled with happiness.
When they finished, all three looked clean, healthy, and so happy. Grooming day was a wonderful day at Triple G Farms!

Little Farmer, Big Questions!

Animal Body Language

1 Why do animals use body language?

- [ ] They can't talk like we do.
- [ ] They use their bodies, ears, tails, eyes, and sounds to share how they feel.
- [ ] It helps keep them safe.
- [ ] It helps them tell us what they need.
- [ ] All of the above!

Let's Look at Our Farm Friends!

2 What parts do animals use to show how they feel?

- [ ] Ears
- [ ] Eyes
- [ ] Tails
- [ ] Body position
- [ ] Sounds
- [ ] All of the above!

3 Which animals are showing happy body language?

(You can check more than one!)

- [ ] Dogs
- [ ] Goats
- [ ] Horses
- [ ] Cows
- [ ] Sheep
- [ ] Chickens
- [ ] Cats
- [ ] Donkeys

4 Draw a happy animal face!

What do you think this animal is feeling? Why?

Animal Body Language
Look, Learn, and Understand!
Triple G Farms

Animals may not talk with words, but they always communicate!

Animals use their bodies, ears, tails, eyes, and sounds to tell us how they feel. When we learn to read their body language, we can be kind, keep them safe, and be better friends.

1 Match the Body Language to the Feeling

Draw a line from each picture to the correct feeling.

- Happy
- Curious
- Calm and Relaxed
- Nervous or Scared
- Alert
- Uncomfortable

2 Look at the Pictures

What do you think each animal is feeling? Check the best answer.

- ☐ Happy
- ☐ Playful
- ☐ Scared

- ☐ Curious
- ☐ Calm
- ☐ Nervous

- ☐ Calm
- ☐ Uncomfortable

3 Draw an Animal Showing a Different Feeling

Choose one animal and draw it showing a feeling we haven't used yet.

4 Be a Kind Friend!

What can you do if an animal looks nervous or scared? Circle the best choices.

- ☐ Speak in a calm, quiet voice.
- ☐ Give them space.
- ☐ Move slowly.
- ☐ Try to pet them right away.
- ☐ Yell or make loud noises.
- ☐ Let a grown-up help.
- ☐ Be patient and kind.
