Morgan Horses
Meet Scout!

Scout is a Morgan horse!

He is a very special boy with a gentle heart, a beautiful spirit, and a big personality.
Even though Scout cannot see, he lives a happy, safe, and full life at Triple G Farms with the help of his farm family and friends!

A Brave, Kind, and Inspiring Farm Friend

About the Breed

Morgan horses are one of America's oldest and most beloved breeds. They are known for their strength, beauty, intelligence, and willingness to work. Morgans have been trusted as family horses, farm horses, and therapy horses for over 200 years!

5 Fun Facts About Morgan Horses

1. They are strong, graceful, and versatile.
2. They are known for their kind and willing personalities.
3. They make wonderful family horses.
4. They were one of the first horse breeds developed in the United States.
5. They excel at many activities, including, riding, driving, and even therapy work.

What Makes Scout Special?

Scout may not be able to see, but that doesn't hold him back! He is smart, confident, and loves spending time with his farm family. Scout knows his home, his friends, and his routines. He uses his other senses, like hearing, smell, and touch, to navigate the world around him.

How to Care for a Morgan Horse

- Food & Water: A healthy diet of hay, pasture, and fresh water keeps Scout strong.
- Exercise: Regular exercise helps keep him healthy and happy.
- Grooming: Brushing his beautiful coat and nane keeps him clean and helps him feel good.
- Safe Environment: A consistent routine, a secure space, and familiar surroundings help Scout feel confident and safe.
- Kindness: Patience, love, and positive training help Scout continue to thrive!

Did You Know?

Morgan horses are often called "the people's horse" because of their friendly and loyal nature. They are known for their strong bond with people and their willingness to try new things and make their humans proud!

Let's Learn Together!

- What do you think it means to be brave?
- How can we be kind and respectful around horses?
- Why do you think routine is important for a horse like Scout?
- What are some ways we can help all animals, even those with special needs, feel safe and loved?

Morgan horses are a gift from God.