♥ November 2026 ♥

Welcome, Farm Friends!

We're so excited to share our very first newsletter from Triple G Farms in beautiful New Sharon, Maine!

MayBelle, Amos, and Gertrude have been busy, and we have so much exciting news to share this November.

From a new book and a new website to special events and a special rescue horse, there's a lot to celebrate!

Thank you for being part of our Triple G Farms family! ♥

Welcome Scout

Seeing the World in His Own Special Way

Scout is a gentle Morgan horse who is blind in one eye. As Gertrude and the friends get to know him, they learn that everyone has unique abilities, and that asking for help is okay. This heartwarming story is about friendship, patience, and never letting a disability determine your worth. ♥

"I have a disability, but I don't let it have me."

Rescue Horse of the Month Meet Ari!

This month we are shining a spotlight on Ari, a very special horse from Black Feather Horse Rescue. Ari is a beautiful reminder of how kindness, patience, and love can give a horse a second chance.

Visit our Groups We Support page to learn more about Black Feather Horse Rescue and how you can help. ♥

BLACK FEATHER HORSE RESCUE

A Note from Gertrude

Hellooo, Farm Friends!
It's me, Gertrude! We have a NEW friend named Scout! He's a horse, and he's really big! I've been learning that being a good friend means listening, being patient, and asking how I can help. Keep reading, keep learning, and always be kind!
Love and little hoofprints,

Gertrude ♥
